THE HONGKONG FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

NO Further applications from Hongkong, or Macao, for Shares in the above Office will be received after the 15th inst. JARDINE, MATHESON & Co., General Managers, Hongkong, December 2, 1868.

THE HONGKONG FIRE INSURANCE

COMPANY, LIMITED. CAPITAL 2,000,000 DOLLARS, in 2,000 Shares of 1,000 Dollars each, Consulting Committee :-GEORGE F. HEARD, ERQ. WM. KAYE, ESQ. R. ROWETT, ESQ. S. D. SASSOON, Esq. F. BUXEY, Esq. General Managers, - Mesers JARDINE, MATHEBON & Co.

Head Office, No. 39, Queen's Road.

HE HONGKONG FIRE INSURANCE COM PANY, which expires by effluxion of time in a few months, having proved highly successful undertaking, it has been determined by a large number of its shareholders to form a permanent Company, under the same management and with increased Capital.

It is proposed to register the Company under the Limited Liability Ordinance. and the amount of the Capital having been fixed at Two Millions of Dollars, it is considered that Insurers will be amply secured thereby, while at the same time each shareholder will know the extent of his individual liability. - The capital proposed to be called up amounts to a large sum, and provision will be made for the creation of an ample Reserve Fund, which will, it is expected in a very short time accumulate to an amount practically to give the fullest security both to Insurers and Insured, irrespective of the unpaid Capital,

It is intended to auticipate the termina tion of the Old Company, by dissolving it from and after the 31st December next, and measures are being taken for that purpose. In anticipating a successful career for the New Company, it is only necessary to present to the public the results of the Old

Company since its establishment in Me 1866, as exhibited by the following figures:-The total premiums collected from the 11th May 1866 to the present time, a period of only two years and five months, amount to$304,727.72

The losses which have been paid within the same period. have amounted to.....$130,081.22 and include the large sum of $85,270 lost by the Fire at Hongkong in Nov. 1867. The amount now at the Credit of the Working Account after paying all Expenses and Re-insurances to date.

These figures fully warrant the most sanguine expectations of success, and it is but reasonable to expect that, strengthened with larger Capital, the present undertaking cannot fail to prove at least as successful as the former one. The Old Company, when it entered the field, bad to create a business for itself, but the New one, in taking over the outstanding risks and connections of the Old Company, will at once receive a very large amount of premium and enter on a profitable and organised business. Moreover, there is no doubt that the risk of Fire in Hongkong has been greatly diminished by the Building Regulations now in force, and by the establishment of a Fire Brigade.

The following are the main features of the New Company :-1. A first Call of $100, to be paid upon each share on allotment, and a further Call of $100 to be paid in Six Months; all further Calls to be determined upon at General Meetings of the shareholders. Interest at 12 per cent per annum to be in the first instance allowed on the paid up Capital, such Interest to be payable half-yearly, on 30th June, and 30th December. The profits after deducting the said Interest to be applied thus :- 20 per cent, pro rata, amongst such of the shareholders as shall have contributed or influenced business to the Company, and the remainder in forming a Reserve Fund of $250,000.

When such Reserve Fund shall have been accumulated, the payment of Interest to cease, and the profits to be applied thus: -20 per cent to be distributed as already mentioned amongst the shareholders who shall have contributed business to the Company; 30 per cent. to the augmentation of the Reserve Fund unt it shall reach $1,000,000, at which figure it is to be permanently maintained; and the remaining 50 per cent. to be distributed by way of dividend amongst the shareholders generally. No shareholder to hold more than 250 The Company to be managed by General Managers, with the assistance of a Consulting Committee. The Funds of the Company to be deposited in Canks or in Government Securities approved of by the Committee. Over one half of the entire number of shares has already been taken up. The following is the form of application for shares, which should be filled up and signed by the applicant and left with the General Managers of the Company HONGKONG, 23rd November, 1868.

To the General Managers of the "HONGKONG FIRE INBURANCE CO., LIMITED,"

[Address of applicant and date. I [or we] hereby request that you will allot to me [or us] shares in the above company, and I for we agree to accept such shares, or any less number you may allot to me, [or us] and to pay the First Call of $100 per share on allotment, and the HE Ordinary Annual Meeting of the Second Call of $100 per share on the Thirtieth day of June next, as well as any sub sequent Calls that may be made, and to sign the Deed of Association whenever required so to do. Your obedient servant

THE CHINA MAIL

HONGKONG, SATURDAY, DEC. 12, 1868 THE BIBLE IN CHINA. THE clever but egotistic George Borrow was, we believe, the first writer who ever succeeded in interesting the general public, religious and irreligious, in work avowedly devoted to an account of Bible distribution. His "Bible in. Spain," often scornfully rejected for perusal on the score of its title, was singularly fortunate in achieving a reputation which has placed it not merely on the shelves devoted to "books for boys" but in collections more pretentions than the the very egotism of the author constitutes its chief charm. We all like tales of personal adventure, and Borrow's work is in reality a very readable work of praiseworthy pursuit and the Monte-Christo-like linguistic ability which the author claimed to, and we believe to a large extent did, really possess. In the "Travels in Tartary" of Fathers Hue and Gabet we find the work which most -nearly resembles that of Borrow. The same graphic writing, veined by religious feeling, and overlaid with conscious or unconscious egotism is to be found in both, and each have achieved a somewhat similar reputation, the advantage, as was natural from the comparatively unknown country dealt with, resting with the Lazarist fathers. Our attention has been directed to the subject from a mere heading which has caught our eye in the last number of the Chinese Recorder to

> To say nothing of the unphilosophical character of such objections. I maintain that they are by no means borne out by facts. The reception of Buddhism by the nation at large is a sufficient guarantee that the people are as capable of adopting new opinions as any other nation; and the zeal needful for the maintenance of the system through so many centuries, were it nothing more, amply vindicates them from the charge of inherent apathy.

We do not indeed find the rampant fanaticism that characterizes the Hindu; nor is. the spirit of self-immolation and voluntary martyrdom at all prevalent. But: it is not difficult to point to instances of religious zeal among the Chinese, perhaps unsurpassed by any people. It may suffice to quote the Buddhist priests, who in their fervour for the purity of the faith. their native soil, traversing long and unknown tracks to distant countries, enduring privation, toil and danger, and accomplishing journeys which would be counted marvelious, even in these days of universal

None have attained a greater fame than the priest Huen-chwang, who left his native country in the early part of the 7th century, and after more than sixteen years spent in the cause of his religion, returned to China, to end his days in the further development of the same spirit. His wife gave it out that he was lost, and that she had not seen or heard parties she stated that he was gone for a soldier, and to others that "he was quiet enough." During Thursday she knocked her husband backwards in a public-house, and falling on a spittoon, he cut his head open. The landlord rebuked the wife and reminded her that just previously a publican had been killed in the town by falling backwards. Suspicion having been aroused on Monday evening Inspector Horswill, of the Leamington force, went to the house, but the woman for a long time refused to admit him, and only did so on his threatening to break open the door. On entering he asked her where her husband was, and she said she did not know. On turning a "bull's eye" down the cellar steps, he saw the deceased lying on his side, with his head downwards, in a pool of blood and his legs half-way up the steps. The back part of his head was completely smashed, a portion of the brain protruded, and death must have been instantaneous. It was also evident that he had been dead several days. The inspector charged the wife with being an accessory to the death, and cautioned her. She then said, " Well. I could not help it. I was sitting in this chair (a chair near the cellar door). He had been drinking, and was going out there into the back He fell down. I could not pull him I said, 'What are you falling down sere for ?" At first, she stated that it had just occurred ; next, that it occurred two or three days ago; and ultimately that it was on the Thursday night. At the police station she stated that the deceased was reaching some food from the shelf when he fell. Some mouldy bread was found on the shelf. The woman had been living and sleeping in the house as if nothing had happened, and has been in an intoxicated condition from that time until apprehended. She appears quite indifferent to her position, and assigns no reason for keeping her husband's death a secret, but the fact that during her husband's life they received an allowance from truetees of ba. per week, which would be stopped on her husband's death, is alleged to be a reason for her reticence, supposing she was not accessory to his death. An inquest on the body resulted in a verdict to the effect that "the deceased, met with his death by falling down the cellar steps, while in s state of intoxication, but there is no evidence before the jury to show the cause of his falling, and that Mrs. Court's conduct in not giving information at once is highly

BE "TREATY PORTS OF CHINA & JAPAN," AND "NOTES AND QUERIES ON CHINA AND JAPAN." EXTRACTS FROM BEVIEWS.

(From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868.)
We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the numbers for the current year of "Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N. B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in ori-ental antiquities. It deserves to be better known in India.

(From the "Stratts Times," July 27, 1868.)

Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkong publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the know-ledge of our readers. We allede to Notes ledge of our readers. We allude to Notes and Queries on hina and Japan, published monthly by Mr Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in size and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very ourious and inseful information regarding the language, literainformation regarding the language, literature, history, manners and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour.

The publication is altogether a very interesting one, and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support of our readers.

(From the "London Examiner," May

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports of China and Japan"] is intended as a guide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally. It contains an account, historical and political, of all the open ports of these countries, together with Peking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macao. It has been carefully compiled and edited by Mr N. B. Dennys; and the elaborate maps and plans, with which the work abounds, considerably enhance its value. * * * We have thus given in outline some of the more prominent portions of the chapter devoted to Canton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghae, and the remainder of the treaty ports, we can only enumerate. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and contain so much that is new to European readers respecting its history, public buildings, and general characteristics, that we would fain transfer them to our columns.

A complete and intelligible plan of the Imperial City and neighbourhood, gives us an accurate notion of the relative position of its divisions, streets, and places.

In the introductory chapter to the notices of the Treaty Ports of Japan will be found as uccinct history of that Empire, together with remarks on its government, geography, and limits, which will be found particularly interesting as throwing a considerable light on a part of the world so long entirely, and still comparatively, unknown to Europeans.
The descriptions of Nagasaki, Yedo, Yokohama, and the other Treaty Ports of Japan, are as elaborate and entertaining as those of the Chinese ports. A copious index and a useful appendix containing many hints and much appropriate advice to travellers and others, is also included in the volume. The entire work affords a vast amount of information, pleasantly written, and we doubt not will be perused with interest by many who will never visit the
